The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

By the HONOURABLE

JAMES HAMILTON, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears to me, by ſundry Depoſitions taken before Thomas Lawrence, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Philadelphia, that on Saturday, the firſt Inſtant, the Day John Thomas, and Eleanor Davis, were barbarouſly kill'd in her Dwelling-houſe in Cheſter County, three Men, Strangers, who had travell'd on Foot from Kent County, in the Province of Maryland, or ſome other Part of that Province, were ſeen very near the ſaid Dwelling-houſe, under ſuch particular Circumſtances, as give very juſt Reaſon to ſuſpect they committed thoſe horrid Facts; which Suſpicion is ſtrongly confirm'd by their ſudden diſappearing after the Perpetration of the Crimes, altho' they had travell'd openly on the High-Road for two Days before toward the ſaid Houſe.

And it appearing to me by the ſaid Depoſitions, that one of the ſaid Men was about Twenty-two Years of Age, tall, and very ſlender, of a thin viſag'd, ill favour'd, of a ſwarthy or Sun-burnt Complexion, wore an old hat, Check Shirt, Trowſers, and a black or very dark colour'd Bear-ſkin Waiſtcoat, had a Sore or Wound almoſt on the Inſide of his right Thigh, a little above his Knee; that he carried a long Wallet ſtuffed very full, and a Bundle of darkiſh colour'd Clothes; that he produced a Paſs ſign'd by a Perſon who he ſaid was a Juſtice of the Peace in Kent County in Maryland, wherein he is call'd Thomas Kelly; under which Paſs was a Certificate, as it is ſaid, that the ſaid Perſon was one of the Juſtices in Kent County in Maryland, ſign'd by the Clerk of the ſame County, and atteſted by that County Seal.

That another of the ſaid Men appeared to be about Twenty-five Years of Age, of a very fair, but not a ruddy Complexion, round viſag'd, of middle ſiz'd Stature, but thick and well proportioned, had his Hair cut off, wore a good Hat, a white Cap, and Waiſtcoat, a fine white Linnen Shirt, Check Trowſers, very wide, but ſhort, a Pair of good Shoes, and large Silver Buckles; that he produced a Paſs, as from a Juſtice of the Peace, living in Kent County aforeſaid, and a Diſcharge from his Maſter, in the ſame Hand-writing; the Paſs was dated the 16th of July, 1752; it was wrote with very pale Ink, except the Figures (16th) the Juſtice's Name, and the Words (Kent County, in Maryland) on the left Side of the Seal at Bottom, which were all wrote with black Ink; the Seal alſo was only a round Mark, made with Ink, placed at the End of the Juſtice's Name.

That the third Man appear'd to be about Thirty or Thirty-five Years of Age, tall, but not very ſlender, of a dark Complexion, ſwarthy viſag'd, with a ſharp Noſe, wore his Hair, and had a black Wig, walk'd bending forward, remarkably ſticking out his Buttocks behind, and had an uncommon Kind of hobbling Gait; wore a Coat, black, or very dark brown colour'd Waiſtcoat, a dark coloured Cloth or Handkerchief tied round one of his Legs, as if to cover a Sore, and bluiſh Kind of grey Stockings; carried a Bundle of Clothes, in which was a Coat, on one Side of a brown, the other of a grey Colour, but the Colour of the Out or Inſide particularly was not remembered, and that by their Manner of pronouncing Engliſh, they all appeared to be Natives of Ireland.

All Juſtices are therefore, in his Majeſty's Name, to require and command the Magiſtrates, Sheriffs, Conſtables, and Officers of Juſtice within this Province, and other his ſaid Majeſty's Liege Subjects in aiding the ſame; and alſo to intreat all Governors of, and Magiſtrates, Officers, and Liege People reſiding in any of the neighbouring Provinces, to purſue and apprehend, or cauſe to be purſued and apprehended, the above deſcribed Perſons, and them to ſecure, that they may be examin'd and dealt with according to Law.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the eighteenth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-two, and in the Twenty-ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

JAMES HAMILTON.

By His Honour's Command,

RICHARD PETERS, Secretary. GOD ſave the KING.

In Aſſembly, the 12th Day of the Month called Auguſt, 1752.

Reſolved, That ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS, Current Money of this Province, be paid out of the Publick Treaſury, as a Reward to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall apprehend and ſecure the three Murderers of John Thomas, ſo that they may be brought to Juſtice; or FIFTY POUNDS per Head for any of them."

Copy from the Minutes,

WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Clerk of the Aſſembly.

PETERSBURGH, June 19.

A FEW Days ago we had a Report of a new Conflagration at Moſcow, to which the Publick gave little or no Credit, as it was not talked of at Court; but ſeveral Expreſſes are ſince from that City, with the following diſmal Account:

They were not yet recovered at Moſcow from the Conſternation had been thrown into by the Conflagration of the 23d of when a Fire broke out the 3d Inſtant near Arbat-ſtreet, hard the Houſe of M. Nariſkin, Marſhal of the Court, which ſtood a ſmall Diſtance of the Imperial Palace of Kremelin. During the Remainder of that Day, and all the Night following, the being at South-Weſt, blew the Flames towards the Quarters Semenſka, Pretſchiſtenſkaja, Oſtoſchjenſka Zoubowa, Smo-Sawiſkaja and Chamowna, as far as the Monaſtery or munity of the Noble Ladies, where they ſtopt the 4th in the after having conſumed upwards of 13,000 Houſes, and moſt the Churche and Convents in the ſaid Quarters. The 6th anofire broke out in the Center of the City, and did not ſubſide had made a terrible Devaſtation. If we may credit common and if the Accounts of the Damage are not exaggerated, two Third of the vaſt City of Moſcow are reduced to Aſhes. we can ſafely aver, that there is no conſiderable Family in the but what is a Sufferer by this Diſaſter: Admiral Prince Galliczin, in particular, is above 150,000 Rubles the worſe for it. The Empreſs's Stables in the Quarter of Chamowna are entirely burnt down. We regret in particular the Loſs of the Manufactury of Sail-cloth, Hollands and Diapers, belonging to Mr. John Tameſz, which was entirely conſumed, with every Thing belonging to it: His Dwelling-houſe being of Stone, nothing but the Roof of it was burnt.

It would be ſome Conſolation if we could be perſuaded that theſe Diſaſters were purely accidental; but it is unfortunately too true that the Fire was kindled by Incendiaries: The Flames were ſeen to ariſe in diſtant Places at once, and ſome of thoſe horrid Monſters were detected in lighting and ſcattering combuſtible Matters, Parcels of which were found on the Roofs of ſeveral Palaces, particularly on Prince Repuin's Houſe. Some of thoſe Miſcreants having been examined as to their Motives for committing ſuch execrable Actions, they could alledge no Diſaffection to the Government, nor any Hatred to private Perſons, but were only inſtigated by the Proſpect of plundering in the Midſt of the Confuſion and Deſolation. As ſuch monſtrous Crimes cannot be too rigorouſly puniſhed, an Execution will ſoon be made at Moſcow capable of ſtriking a Terror into all who may yet be inclined to turn Incendiaries.

While Moſcow lies in this melancholly Condition, moſt of the Lords and Ladies of the Court imagined they ought to divert the Empreſs from her intended Journey thither, leſt her Imperial Majeſty ſhould be too much affected with ſo diſmal a Spectacle: But it is on this very Account that ſhe has reſolved to go, and nothing will be capable of making her alter that Reſolution. Being at Table a few Days ago, ſhe explained herſelf thus in regard to the Journey: 'The more miſerable my Subjects at Moſcow are, the ſooner will I repair to them, in order to comfort and relieve them.' Yet we doubt whether the Empreſs can ſet out ſo ſoon as ſhe intends, becauſe ſhe muſt lodge this Time in Kremelin Palace, and it muſt be previouſly repaired and new furniſhed.

As every Poſt from Moſcow brings freſh Particulars of the Damage done by the Fire, we have juſt now learned that the Grand Imperial Pharmacy has likewiſe been reduced to Aſhes, with Part of the Laboratories, Ware-houſes and Buildings belonging to it. From this Pharmacy Medicines were diſtributed all over the Empire, for the Account of the Court, who took Care to get them prepared under the Inſpection of able Phyſicians and expert Chymiſts, in order to prevent the Adulterations of Quacks, &c.

Paris, July 10. A Piece has lately appeared here, entituled, A Letter from the Biſhop of Marſeilles to the Chancellor, printed at Carpentraſs the 25th-------1752. This Letter has made a great Noiſe, on Account of the Reflections contained in it on the Parliament's Arret of the 18th of April laſt. After having declaimed in the moſt virulent Strain againſt that Arret, and pretended, that it would be productive of Conſequences, which could be no otherwiſe prevented than by leaving to the Biſhops the ſole Cognizance of the Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, as they alone had a Right to it, the Author concludes with the following Rant. "To obey that aſtoniſhing Arret of the Parliament of Paris, who give Judgment in Matters that cannot be ſubject to their Juriſdiction; who, in pretending to oppoſe an imaginary Schiſm, declare themſelves the Authors and Promoters of a Schiſm which is but too real, juſt as an Engliſh Parliament might do; would be in the Front-iffs of the living God, and in their ſubordinate Miniſters, an infamous Prevarication: And doubtleſs every one of them, rather than become baſe and ſacrilegious Prophaners of the Body and Blood of Jeſus Chriſt, by giving the Holy Euchariſt to dying Perſons not duly diſpoſed to receive it worthily, would chearfully mount the Scaffolds erected for the Deſtruction of the Spiritual Juriſdiction, and of its ſacred Rules eſtabliſhed in the Univerſal Church, &c." This Piece, as might well be expected, the Parliament ordered to be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman.

LONDON,

July 2. We hear a Propoſal will ſoon be laid before the Lords of the Admiralty, relating to a Machine deſign'd for keeping Perſons floating after Shipwreck: It is ſo contriv'd, that every Sailor may carry it about him at all Times, without the leaſt Incumbrance or Inconveniency, and it is to keep them buoyant as long as they can live above Water, in ſpite of Surfs or Breakers.

July 3. Yeſterday Thomas Wilford (condemned laſt Seſſions, for the Murder of his Wife) was executed, purſuant to the late Act of Parliament, at Tyburn. This unhappy young Fellow had always the Reputation of a good natur'd induſtrious Man, nor was ever known to be concerned in any Thing either diſhonourable or illegal, till the fatal Event of killing his Wife; and as his Motive was Jealouſy, a Paſſion impetuous and irreſiſtable, he even in this Caſe merited Compaſſion. Though he was hurried by this infernal Fury to imbrue his Hands in his Wife's Blood, yet no ſooner did he recover his Reaſon, than he reſign'd himſelf to Juſtice, and deſired to ſuffer for the Crime he had committed: He loved and doated on his Wife, which made the Suſpicion of her Diſhonour act more powerfully upon him. He behaved, during his Confinement, and at his Execution, with a becoming Fortitude and Chriſtian Reſignation. He prayed a long while with the Ordinary under the Gallows, and when he was turned off, he ſtruggled very hard. He was carried immediately to the Surgeons Hall, to be anatomized; a Puniſhment, if it can be called one, to which all Murderers are to be ſubjected after their Execution.

July 4. Some private Advices from Franckfort intimate, that the Imperialiſts and Pruſſians are unuſually earneſt in recruiting; that the King of Pruſſia's Declaration at Vienna, in reference to the Meaſures he intends to purſue as to Eaſt-Friezland, makes a great Noiſe; and that there is a Rumour as if the Auſtrian Forces would be very ſpeedily ſent into Swabia.

Though the barbarous Cuſtom among the Pagans, of burying the living Wives with their dead Huſbands, in the Eaſt-Indies, has been for many Years, under ſevere Penalties, prohibited by the Great Mogul, and other Mahometan Princes in that Quarter of the Globe; yet they have not been able to ſuppreſs it intirely, and the following is an Inſtance which lately happen'd. The Writer of the Letter, from which the Account is extracted, was an Eye-witneſs of the whole Affair at Collicutta, in Bengal (the moſt eaſterly Province of the Mogul's Dominions in India) "The naked Body of a dead Jengew Man was laid on a Pile of Wood, made up in a regular Form; and his Wife, not above 15 or 16 Years of Age, walk'd to the Pile, conducted by her Friends and Parents, her Father on one Side, and her Mother on the other. After a great Number of previous Ceremonies were perform'd, ſhe walk'd round the Pile ſeven or eight times in a melancholy and devout Manner, conducted as before, by her Father and Mother; ſhe then ſtepp'd upon the Pile, and quietly laid herſelf down by the Corpſe of her Huſband, about whoſe Neck her Hands were faſten'd, and her legs tied to his; then both their Bodies were anointed with a ſort of Unguent, called Ghee; over them was ſtrew'd a ſort of yellow Duſt, and they were cover'd with a Cloth, which was kept down by ſome Pieces of Wood. At laſt the Father of the deceaſed Huſband ſet Fire to the Pile, which run through it like Lightning, by Means of the yellow Powder. And the Spectators were oblig'd to draw backward from the Heat. The whole was conſum'd to Aſhes in about an Hour's Time." The above Letter came home with one of the laſt Ships from the Eaſt-Indies; was dated from Inglee, in Bengal, December 30, 1751; and the horrid Deed of Cruelty was committed about 15 Days before the Date of the Letter.

July 7. Yeſterday came on at Guildhall, the Trial of Mr. Owen, an eminent Bookſeller, upon an Information for publiſhing a Pamphlet, entituled, The Caſe of the Honourable ALEXANDER MURRAY, Eſq; when after a Hearing of ſix Hours, the Jury, having received their Charge, withdrew, and, in an Hour and forty Minutes, brought in their Verdict, NOT GUILTY, to the entire Satisfaction of a numerous and crowded Audience, who were unanimouſly delighted to find the Liberty of the Preſs (ſo intimately connected with the Liberty of the Subject) ſo juſtly aſſerted by this equitable Verdict.

Upon the Acquittal of Mr. Owen, almoſt as loud were the Shouts at thoſe made at the Acquittal of the Biſhops from their Libel in 1688; which were not only heard in the Standing Army at Hounſlow, but all over the Nation, and the Effects not long after felt.

July 15. We received Advice Yeſterday, that the Whale Fiſhery had ſucceeded with the Engliſh in general, beyond their warmeſt Expectations. We likewiſe received Advice from Hambourgh, that the Engliſh Company's Herrings had, from their particular Excellency, ſold at a higher Price than had been known in the Memory of Man: And from Bremen, that a Parcel of upwards of 100 Barrels of the ſaid Company's Herrings were arrived there before the Dutch, which proving very excellent, had ſold for 5 l. 18 s. per Barrel.----For the Encouragement theſe two Fiſheries have had given them by the Legiſlature, the Britiſh Nation will probably ſee, in a few Years, their Naval Strength reſtored to its ancient Luſtre.

Extract of a Letter from Leith, in Scotland, dated July 9.

"In the Road of Leith from Greenland, in a Paſſage of ſixteen Days, the three following Ships belonging to that Port, viz. the Edinburgh, Capt. Roxburgh, having on Board ſix Whales, the Bounty, Capt. Cheyne, with five, and the Trial, Capt. Allen, with two: They are all Bone Fiſh, and of a conſiderable Value. Alſo arrived at Dunbar, the North Star, Capt. Fowler, with four Whales Three-fourths, of a good Size, and a large Quantity of Whale-bone.

The above Ships bring an Account, that the Whale Ships from the Thames have caught Twenty-nine Fiſh, of which the Parnaſſus, Capt. Hornby, has Eight and a Half; that the Thiſtle of Glaſgow has caught ſeven Whales, the Peggy of Ditto two, the Peggy of Borrowſtounneſs one, the Campbeltown of Campbeltown one, and the other Ship from Campbeltown none; the Ship from Liverpool five, the two Ships from Briſtol five, and that from Newcaſtle four; and that the Sword-fiſh, Capt. Wilſon, the Merry Jacks, Captain Hill, and the Revolution, Capt. Skinner, were all three loſt in the Ice, Part of whoſe Crews were brought home in the Leith Ships."

July 17. Joſeph Benedict, Archduke of Auſtria, and eldeſt Son of their preſent Imperial Majeſties, who is propoſed to be elected King of the Romans, was twelve Years of Age on the 2d of March laſt. The King of Pruſſia, Elector of Brandenbourg, therefore urges a very plauſible Reaſon for poſtponing the Election; for he alledges, that if the preſent Emperor ſhould die before his Son comes of Age, as the King of the Romans muſt ſucceed to the Diadem, a Minor filling the Imperial Throne, could not have Weight or Authority ſufficient to promote, or to maintain the Peace of the Germanick Body. However, it is imagin'd, he may, in Time, be brought to other Sentiments, by giving up to him all Pretenſions upon the Principality of Eaſt Friezland, as the Elector Palatine is likely to comply, by being indemnified for the Sufferings of his Territories during the late War. The Elector of Brandenbourg, and the Elector Palatine, were the only two who oppoſed the Election of the preſent Emperor, in the Year 1745, and they both proteſted againſt it, but have ſince acknowledg'd him.

By the laſt Holland Mail there is Advice, that the French Commodore, M. du Reveſt, continued at Anchor before Tripoli, waiting for the Squadron from Toulon, under the Command of M. de Villarzell, with whom he was to ſail, and act in Concert, on a ſecret Expedition.

In the Sermon which the Biſhop of Amiens lately preach'd in his Cathedral, and which has fallen under the Cenſure of the Parliament of Paris, whoſe Arret on that Occaſion has been ſent down to be read and publiſhed throughout all the Bailiwicks of the Dioceſe of Amiens, that zealous Advocate for the Conſtitution Unigenitus, after a tedious and ſophiſtical Diſcuſſion of worthy and unworthy Communions, concludes his Diſcourſe with the following Charge to his Clergy:

Take heed therefore that you be not ſeduced nor intimidated by thoſe who reſiſt the Pope and the Biſhops; be not afraid of temporal Judges, who are unqualified to take Cognizance of the Matters: No Dread of Men ſhould hinder you from acting according to the Light of your Conſcience. I can do nothing better than addreſs you in the Words of St. John Chryſoſtom to his Clergy: "Let no human Conſiderations ever "prevail on you to give the Sacraments to unworthy Perſons; and "if you don't feel yourſelves ſtrong enough to withſtand them, "refer them to me; they ſhall find me firm and unſhakable as a "Wall of Braſs, &c."

The ſaid Biſhop, in the fixth Article of the Breviary of Amiens, reſerv'd to himſelf alone the Right of abſolving all Perſons in his Dioceſe that keep by them the Works of Father Queſnel, or write any thing againſt the Bull Unigenitus; Which Article the Parliament of Paris has likewiſe cenſur'd.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, July 2.

"The Count de St. Florentin, Miniſter and Secretary of State, and in whoſe Department are comprehended Eccleſiaſtical Affairs, went one Day laſt Week to our Archbiſhop's Palace. The Archbiſhop had receiv'd timely Intelligence of this Viſit, and receiv'd him him at the Head of eleven Biſhops, whom he had collected at very ſhort Warning, aſking him, with a ſmiling Countenance, what good News he had brought from Court? The Count anſwer'd, that the King had charg'd him with his Commands not to hold any more Aſſemblies, either at his Palace or elſewhere; or to ſuffer any Biſhops or Eccleſiaſtick, of what Rank ſoever, to make the preſent Situation of Things the Subject of their Diſcourſe; and having added, Theſe are my Orders, and the King expects to be obey'd, he return'd to Compiegne without entring into any Converſation with the Archbiſhop or the Prelates about him."

It is reported that a third Perſon in a conſiderable Place is diſcharg'd from his Employment, and render'd incapable of ſerving in any Office under the Government during his Majeſty's Pleaſure.

The laſt Amſterdam Gazette obſerves, that it is doubtful whether the Britiſh Commiſſaries at Paris have yet had any Succeſs in their Conferences about ſettling the Limits of America; that at leaſt, their Progreſs is ſlow; and that new Difficulties inceſſantly ariſe, eſpecially in Regard to Nova-Scotia.---If ſo, the ready Way to ſolve thoſe Difficulties, and to anſwer all the Objections of the French Commiſſaries, is to break off the Conferences. But againſt this there ſeems to lie an Objection: To ſhew Reſentment, without being in a Condition to make France feel it, would be impolite and ridiculous. To which one may anſwer, that to expect any Good from Delays, may be equally ridiculous, ſince the French muſt, in the Common Courſe of Things, reap as great Advantages from Procraſtination as England poſſibly can; and to leave any Thing to Providence, which may be compaſſed by human Wiſdom, is a Kind of pious Indolence not at all becoming Statеſmen.

A Clergyman and his Maid Servant are now in Taunton Goal in order to take their Trials at the next Aſſizes, for the Murder of a Girl, who was put out to him by the Pariſh.

The Pains taken to ſettle and maintain Tranquility abroad, we are in Duty bound to believe, is with a View to prevent our engaging for many Years to come, in tedious, bloody, and expenſive Wars; ſo much the more grievous, as they are commonly in other People's Quarrels. For this therefore we ought, no doubt, to be thankful: But, to make us more completely happy, this favourable Opportunity ſhould be taken to begin thoſe frugal Reforms, that, by mere Dint of Oeconomy, may bring the Publick out of Debt. A new Sinking Fund to be created, by ſuppreſſing uſeleſs curtailing ſuper-lucrative, and conſolidating Places, which are trivial, would be a moſt noble Inſtance of publick Spirit, and what the People in general would not fail to praiſe; becauſe its ſalutary Effects the People in general will be ſure to feel.

There are ſeveral Letters in Town from Shetland, which mention there being three or four Times the Number of French Buſſes upon the Herring Fiſhery than ever before uſed to be; and that the Cheſterfield Buſs, belonging to the Society, which carried the Prize laſt Year, is again likely to carry it this.

Among other Things of Importance which ſeem to have been of late neglected, the Growth of Engliſh Oak appears worthy of Obſervation; there being now ſuch a Scarcity of that valuable Timber, that we are not able from our Trees to find Bark ſufficient for home Conſumption. If no Care is taken to remedy this Loſs, we ſhall not, ſoon, be able to build our own Ships with Engliſh Oak, than which no Part of the World has produced better.

On Saturday laſt the Secretary of the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery waited upon the Royal Family, with Preſents of Britiſh Pickled Herrings, brought that Day into the River, by the Society's Jagger, from Shetland.

The Lords of the Admiralty have been pleaſed to order his Majeſty's Ship the Culloden, at Chatham, of 74 Guns, and another of the like Rank, at Portſmouth, to be forthwith ſheathed, and and fitted for a Voyage.

The Parnaſſus, Capt. Nicholſon, from Greenland, is arrived in the River, having caught eight Whales. She caught as many laſt Year.

We hear, that through the ſtudious Endeavours of ſome of his Miniſters, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has taken a great Turn to Maritime Affairs; converſes much with Perſons ſkilled in extenſive Commerce, encourages Schemes for new Diſcoveries to be laid before him, examines them himſelf, ſtates Objections, attends to the Solutions that are offered, and directs the proper Trials for bringing Things to a Certainty. Whatever Satisfaction this may afford, and no Doubt it affords not a little to every conſiderate Frenchman, it cannot fail of exciting the Jealouſy of his Neighbours, to whoſe Intereſt, his Great Grandfather's Ambition was leſs detrimental than the introducing, by his Example, ſuch a Taſte amongſt his Subjects, would be quickly found.

We learn from Genoa, that upon certain Advice that the Plague rages at Algiers, the Government thereof had taken neceſſary Precautions for the Safety of that Port.

ANNAPOLIS, September 21.

We mentioned in one of our Papers in April laſt, that two Men, with the Aſſiſtance of a Woman, made an Attempt to murder their Maſter, and Miſtreſs, on the other Side of the Bay; and that the Men made off, after robbing them of ſome Money: This Day the Woman, Mary Perry, who was concerned in that Affair, was tried before the Honourable the Judges of the Provincial Court, for the Felony and Burglary, and found Guilty. The two Men were Servants to Mr. Benjamin Denny, near Choptank Bridge, one of them named George Roſſe, and the other Richard Wall, and are ſuppoſed to be two of the three Perſons who committed the horrid Murder lately in Cheſter County, in Pennſylvania; for they exactly anſwer the Deſcription of the two firſt mentioned in Governor Hamilton's Proclamation; but there is this further Deſcription of Wall (the ſecond Perſon deſcribed) that he has a remarkable large Scar on his Belly, which a Man's Hand will ſcarcely cover, occaſion'd, as he told his Maſter, by a Cannon Ball in the French War, which took away Part of his Belly. They both changed their Names ſoon after they left their Maſter.

Yeſterday Capt. Coward paſſed by for Patapſco, with about 150 Palatines.

Capt. Lucas, with about 250 more, is every Hour expected.

BOSTON, September 25.

Tueſay laſt a Ship arrived here from Holland, with about 300 Germans, Men, Women and Children, ſome of whom are going to ſettle at Germantown (a Part of Braintree) and the others in the Eaſtern Parts of this Province. 'Tis ſaid about 40 Children were born during the Paſſage. Among the Atificers come over in this Ship, there are a Number of Men ſkilled in making of Glaſs; and an Houſe proper for carrying on that uſeful Manufacture, will be erected at Germantown as ſoon as poſſible.

Saturday laſt a Country Market-man brought to Town a Baſket of Peaches to ſell, for which he was ſo modeſt as only to aſk 18 d. a Piece; and ſoon found Cuſtomers for 'em. An Huckſter-woman who bought ſome of them to ſell again, ſet them at 20 d. and found ſo quick a Sale, that ſhe heartily repented ſhe had not demanded 2 s. a Piece. A Proof this, that ſome People among us have more Money than Wiſdom.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's Ship Succeſs, Lord Colvill Commander, ſailed from this Port for England.

We he hear from Newport, on Rhode Iſland, that on Friday laſt a Fire broke out in a Tar Houſe adjoining to a large Rope-walk in that Town, which in a ſhort Time conſumed the Houſe, and the greateſt Part of the Walk, with a large Quantity of Yarn, Rigging, &c. The Damage is computed at near Ten Thouſand Pounds, their Currency.

NEW-YORK, October 2.

Wedneſday laſt his Majeſty's Ship the Centaur, Capt. Coſby, arrived at the Watering-place from a ſhort Cruize off our Coaſts.

The ſame Day a Staten-Iſland Paſſage-boat, having been to carry ſome People to Long Iſland, and returning with only the Boatman on board, was overſet by a ſudden Guſt of Wind: The Boat ſunk down directly; but the Man was happily taken up by a Battoe from the Shore.

Laſt Week arrived here Capt. Pickeman, from Holland, with about 230 Palatines on board: By him we have Advice of the Arrival of Capt. Everſon, of this Port, at Cowes, from South Carolina.

By private Letters from London, via Philadelphia, we have Advice of the ſafe Arrival of the Captains Betagh, Garriſon and Richards, all from this Place. Alſo, that Capt. Corne in the Snow Albany, was to ſail from London for this Port the 26th of July laſt; and that Capt. Bryant, in the Ship Joſeph, deſign'd to ſail about the 10th of Auguſt. Some other Veſſels were put up for this Place, but it was thought they would not get Loading.

By Capt. Emott, arrived laſt Week at Elizabeth-town, in 14 Days from Barbados, we hear that Admiral Knowles, in the Wager Man of War, from England, in Company with another Man of War ſtation'd at Barbados, arrived at that Iſland the 27th of Auguſt, and was to ſail again in two or three Days for his Government of Jamaica.

Wedneſday laſt one Patrick Moore, a Boy of about 15 Years old, ſtood in the Pillory here for picking Pockets, of which he was convicted the Day before. And,

On Saturday laſt one John Brady alſo ſtood in the Pillory; being convicted of ſtealing ſome dreſt Deer-ſkins.

We hear from Newark, that on Tueſday laſt, Amos Roberds, one of the Chiefs of the Jerſey Rioters, was committed to their County Jail: This Man was a few Years ago indicted in the Supreme Court for High-treaſon, which Indictment ſtill lies againſt him; and Samuel Nevill, Eſq; one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, going the Circuits, to Morris-County, attended by a great Number of Magiſtrates and Gentlemen, Roberds had the Imprudence, or rather Impudence, boldly to intrude into their Company and Preſence, as if in Defiance of Juſtice; whereupon he was immediately ordered into Cuſtody, and committed to Jail.

On Thurſday laſt a New-Jerſey-man, tall and Pock-fretten, paid ten Pieces of Eight in a Shop in this City; and on Friday it was diſcovered that three of them were counterfeited: The Bulk, Impreſſion and Letters, are ſo well imitated, that one would ſcarcely ſuſpect them; they ring almoſt as other Pieces of Eight; the Colour nearly but not quite the ſame; but on cutting they are ſoft almoſt as Pewter, and on weighing, they are 2 s. lighter than Pieces of Eight; which are the only ſure Means we know of diſcovering them. This is publiſhed to put People upon their Guard, and that if poſſible the Authors of this Villainy may be diſcovered.

By a veſſel laſt Week from Virginia, we have a Paper of Propoſals from the noted Tom Bell; wherein he propoſes to publiſh a genuine and perfect Account of all his Adventures for upwards of 20 Years paſt; with a View of raiſing a Sum of Money to put himſelf in ſome reputable Way of Buſineſs; being, as he ſays, fully determined to reform his Life; and hopes the expoſing of his Miſdeeds may ſerve as a Warning for others to avoid the ſame; and 'tis ſaid he has already met with great Encouragement from the Gentlemen in Virginia.

Extract of a Letter from Charleſtown, in South-Carolina, dated Auguſt 26.

"A Sloop has been ſpoke with off the Bar, this Morning, that has been out 18 Weeks from Liverpool, the People almoſt periſhing. A Ship from Rotterdam, belong to Liverpool, is juſt arrived with Palatines, all in good Health. 100 Savannah Indians are come to this Town for Preſents, and to ſettle at their old Place: They have been for ſome Years in the Vicinity of New-York. The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From a late London News-Paper.

To the AUTHOR, &c.

SIR,

I COULD wiſh you would, now and then, entertain the Town with a Story taken from Life, that might have a Tendency to correct ſome Errors, which ſeem to ariſe from directing our Paſſions to improper Objects; and I may ſay there is no Paſſion which ſo often miſtakes its Object, as Pride; a Truth which I know much better than I can defend; therefore I ſhall make my own Story ſupply the Place of Arguments on that Head.

You muſt know, Sir, I was the only Daughter of a Half Pay Captain; my Father had the double Misfortune of being of the younger Branch, and that of a very poor noble Family, and my Mother was a diſtant Relation before Marriage, but had no Fortune. As they had no more Children but myſelf, they ſpared no Pains or Coſt on my Education; and if my Circumſtances were to have been judged by the Manner in which I was bro't up, no one would have imagined but that I was to have had 5000l. to my Portion; but inſtead of this, I had not the leaſt Proſpect of a Sixpenny Piece, from any Relation or Friend whatever. My poor Father uſed often to comfort himſelf with ſaying, That as his CLEORA was nobly born, he was reſolved ſhe ſhould have an Education ſuitable to her Birth. But, alas! when I was but 22, in one Month I loſt both Father and Mother, and had nothing to ſupport me but my genteel Education; and nothing to boaſt of but the Nobility of my Parentage. In this Dilemma, I was at a great Loſs to know what to do; for as I was bred to no Trade, nor inured to any Service, I ſeemed to be excluded from the two only Means left me to get my Bread. While I was revolving theſe Things in my Mind, a Maiden Aunt of mine, by the Father's Side, who had for many Years been ſtarving genteelly on a ſmall Annuity, very kindly invited me to her Houſe. She was one of thoſe People who cloathed and fed herſelf with the Thoughts of her Nobility: And as I frequently took Occaſion to expreſs my Deſire of getting my own Livelihood, either by binding myſelf to ſome genteel Buſineſs, or by offering to ſerve ſome Lady as her Maid, ſhe as often flew in a Paſſion, and told me, that there had not been a Trade in her Family for theſe 200 Years; and, for her own Part, ſhe had rather ſee me ſtarve than go to Service. I thought this an odd Way of reaſoning; for, proud as ſhe ſeemed to be, ſhe was mean enough to ſollicit, and accept of private Charities, her Annuity being but 15l. a Year. She had a Part of a Houſe to herſelf; her Parlour was elegantly furniſhed, and her Beaufet was adorned with ſeveral Pieces of Family Plate; all, I verily believe, ſhe would rather have wanted Bread (which by the Bye ſhe very often did) than have ſold a Tea Spoon that had the Family Arms upon it. But, alas! how different was that Part of her Furniture which was out of Sight. For while her Parlour looked like that of a Princeſs, her Bed-chamber reſembled that of a Beggar. Her whole Converſation was nothing more than a Genealogy of her Family; and all her Thoughts ſeemed to be taken up in conſidering how ſhe ſhould conceal her Poverty, and at the ſame Time, convince the World that ſhe was nobly born. In this ſplendid Diſtreſs I ſpent a Twelve-month, and heartily tired I was of my Situation. For my Aunt, though ſhe had too much Pride to let me ſerve any Body elſe, ſuffered me, nay often obliged me to do Things which the loweſt Maid-ſervants think beneath them. And while ſhe kindly entertained me on Charity, as ſhe called it, ſhe frequently made uſe of my living with her, as an Argument to ſecure Bounties from her Friends. This was a Thing I could not bear, and was reſolved to leave her at any Rate; but how to do it, without Injury to myſelf, was the Difficulty: For from the Time I had left the Boarding School I had contracted no new Acquaintance; for my Father, to keep up, as he called it, the Dignity of the Family, dreſſed and kept a great deal of Company abroad; ſo that if my poor Mother and I got the bare Neceſſaries of Life, we thought ourſelves extremely happy. But here I muſt inform you, that in endeavouring to avoid this poor, proud, mean, well born Way, my Aunt, I narrowly eſcaped an Evil of a more dreadful Nature; for as I was young, not ugly, and evidently in Diſtreſs, a Gentleman that lodged oppoſite us, having, as I afterwards found, fixed on me as a Prey, took an Opportunity, when my Aunt was gone a viſiting, or rather begging, ſeeing me at the Door, artfully began an Acquaintance, which a Correſpondence ſoon improved into ſomething like a Friendſhip. He extorted Complaints from me, ſeemingly entered into my Diſtreſs, pitied me, and proteſted that he loved me; and alas! I almoſt believed him, which I really think, if I know myſelf, was more owing to my miſerable Situation than any Motive of Liking to him: However, as I thought I could not be more unhappy, I one Day reſolved, tho' I own with Fear and Trembling, to throw myſelf at once into his Protection, and truſt to his Generoſity; for this I had promiſed him, and this I ſhould have certainly done, had I not received a Letter from him that very Afternoon to juſtify my Fears, and convince me, that inſtead of a Protector, I had only found a Betrayer; and, to be honeſt, for the firſt Moment I can hardly ſay whether I was more ſhocked or pleaſed at this Diſcovery; but here, in the Height of my Misery from this Diſappointment, an Accident of an extraordinary Kind, relieved me from my Diſtreſs. My good Aunt returning home about Five, diſappointed of a Dinner where ſhe went, deſired me to broil the Remains of the Pound of Mutton Chops, left the preceding Day; but as ſhe ſaid her Grand Pappa, my Lord,---was very fond of Shallots with roaſt Mutton, ſhe ordered me to fetch them, and put a Halfpenny into my Hand for that Purpoſe; for as ſhe knew the Alliances of her Family for a hundred Years, ſo ſhe was alſo particularly acquainted with their reſpective Taſtes, with which ſhe conſtantly entertained me; and, as I ſuppoſe, to prove, that People who were nobly born, were formed of different Kinds of Materials from the Vulgar, a Thing ſhe herſelf verily believed. But to go on with my Story; I went on my Errand to the next Cook-ſhop, where the Woman, who had always taken me for a Servant, thinking I deſerved a better Place, gave me a Bill of the Univerſal Regiſter-Office in the Strand, then juſt ſet up, which, on reading, unexperienced as I was in Life, I determined to apply to for Relief; and as Diſtreſs makes even our Sex bold, I went and entered myſelf for a Nurſery Maid's Place, and by this Means, in a Week I got into a very good Family; nor had I been a Month in my Nurſery, before my Lady diſcharged her own Maid, and becoming acquainted with my Story, generouſly preferred me to attend herſelf. It was now I began to feel a real Joy from the Danger I had avoided from my Lover, and to ſee that ridiculous Creature, my Aunt, with the higheſt Contempt. What a Change of Situation was here! from Pride, Poverty, Idleneſs and Miſery, ſupported only by the Conſideration of being nobly born, to that of being honeſtly and uſefully employed, kindly treated, poſſeſſing every Conveniency and Comfort of Life, and nothing to rob me of my Happineſs but the Thought of being a Servant. Alas! what a Bugbear has falſe Pride made Service to our Sex. For my own Part, the only Difference I conſider between Miſtreſs and Servant, is but the Name; for as to Happineſs, they are or may be on a Footing: She often ſaid, that one Misfortune generally treads upon the Heels of another; but I have never heard the ſame acknowledged of good Fortune. But this only ſhews that the World in general are more ready to complain of what they ſuffer, than to acknowledge what they enjoy. I am very ready to ſay, I eſteem my Removal from my Aunt, into Service, as a Happineſs; as I muſt ſay the ſame of my Removal from that happy Service, to that of marrying a worthy Tradeſman, who, tho' he has no Nobility of Blood to boaſt, yet, if Honour is juſtly defined to be Honeſty of Heart, in that excellent Quality he is exceeded by none. I cannot ſay more, than by aſſuring you I am happy. But, to make you laugh, I muſt inform you, I received a Letter full of Reſentment from my Aunt, in which ſhe charges me with diſhonouring her Family, by marrying a Tradeſman; and that ſhe was reſolved not to take any Notice of me, do any Thing for me, or give me a Morſel of Bread if I was ſtarving. The great Happineſs I have found in Perſeverance, joined to the Opinion of your Ability, is the Reaſon why I wiſh you would write upon this Subject, and perſuade all Parents to educate their Children in Proportion to their Circumſtances, and to aſſure all thoſe of my Sex that labour under the Prejudices of Education, whoſe Minds are poiſoned with falſe Pride, that Induſtry generally meets with Succeſs; that in England, Service is no Slavery; nor is it any Diſgrace, but rather an Honour to any one, be their Birth or Education what it will, to be a Servant, when it becomes neceſſary for their Support, for ſure nothing can be ſhameful that is honeſt. Do, dear Sir, root this falſe Pride from their Heads, and you will preſerve Thouſands from Deſtruction.

The Importance of EAST-FRIESLAND conſider'd.

WHATEVER may be the Iſſue of the Paper War at Ratiſbon, about Eaſt-Friſland, a Britiſh Subject may be allow'd to wiſh that Principality were adjudged to H---, for the following Reaſons, viz.

1. As a Trading Nation and a Maritime Power, Great-Britain muſt ever be on ill Terms with France, and conſequently H----- will be ſo too: Therefore, the more powerful the latter grows, the ſafer muſt the Balance of Europe be.

2. The more Sea-Ports H---r acquires, the richer it will grow; ſo that in any future Wars with France, it may bring a fine Army into the Field, without putting England to the Expence of maintaining its Troops.

3. As the Houſe of A---will always want ſome Jobb to be done for her, or ſome Aſſiſtance in her Quarrels with France, ſhe muſt in Return indulge H----in every favourite Point, and improve every Opportunity to aggrandize it; and thus their mutual Intereſt will conſtantly prove an invincible Bar to the Deſigns of Bourbon and Br----gh on the Equilibrium of Europe.

4. If hereafter the Picts and Scots, ſupported by Goths and Gauls, ſhould make an Invaſion upon the Britons, and the latter have no Militia fit to face them, nor regular Troops enough to make an effectual Stand, Auxiliaries may be waſted over from the E------, who, like the Saxons of old, when the Buſineſs was done, might have no Thoughts of returning home, but ſay, it is Good for us to be here.

Therefore it is to be hop'd Ways and Means will be found to clip the Wings and pare the Talons of the ſoaring Northern Eagle, to the End that nothing may obſtruct the Aggrandizement of a Spot ſo capable of ſerving this Nation.

It is happy for this Nation that our Laws are not like thoſe of the antient Medes and Perſians,---never to be alter'd nor repeal'd: Every Year furniſhes ſome Inſtance of the Weakneſs of human Wiſdom; ſome new Law or Regulation is made, ſome old Statute alter'd or repeal'd, and even the Acts of the preceding Year amended or better explained. All Men are liable to Miſtakes, through Hurry, Ignorance, Paſſion or Prejudice; ſome Evil or Diſtemper in the Body Politick is preſented, as demanding an immediate Cure, leſt it grow deſperate; ſomething therefore muſt be done, and it often happens that there is not Leiſure ſufficient to inveſtigate the Cauſes of the Diſeaſe, or elſe Inclination is wanting for a diligent Enquiry. Some Men are for reforming one Thing, ſome another, and very few are inclined to reform themſelves. Hence the Patient languiſhes; Quack Remedies are adminiſter'd, by Way of Trial; but for his Recovery, they truſt chiefly to Time, Accidents, and Strength of Conſtitution. Yet theſe Inconveniencies are not to be charg'd as Defects in our Plan of Government: They rather proceed from the Errors, Overſights and Paſſions of Men. Were Ignorance or Indolence, Self-intereſt or private Convenience prevail, Blunders muſt alſo abound: Acting on Principles is then out of the Queſtion, and ſo whatever right Steps may be taken, are the Reſult of that Kind of Wiſdom which is acquir'd by dear-bought Experience, and which in all Ages has been held ſufficient to make Fools wiſe, and therefore muſt be ſufficient for all the Purpoſes of any Nation: And more than this, no reaſonable Man can deſire.

New-Windſor, Berks, June 20. On Monday laſt Mary Withers, a Perſon with one Eye, came to our Mayor, and with a great Artifice impoſed on him, under a Pretence that ſhe and one William Long had a great Loſs by Fire, to the Amount of 600l. and upwards, at Stoke, in the County of Oxford, on the 6th of March laſt, and produced a Petition that ſeemed to be under the Hands and Seals of John Lenthall, and Henry Dutton, Eſqrs; Juſtices of the Peace, atteſted by John Road, Vicar, the Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Pariſh of Stoke; confirmed by the Vice-Chancellor of Oxford, Sir Willoughby Aſhton, and John Hippeſley, Eſqrs; Mr. Robert Mayne, Mayor of Willingford, and ſeveral others; and on her making Complaint that ſhe had 11 Children, 2 of which with her Huſband, periſh'd in the Flames; and that ſhe herſelf had her Eye burnt out, and was very much burnt in other Places: The Mayor, moved with Compaſſion, gave her Leave to beg round the Town, and ſent an Officer with her, by which ſhe got about three or four Pounds; but the ſaid Petition coming into the Hands of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Berks, who knew the Hand-writing of moſt of the Juſtices (tho' very artfully done) ſuſpected the Fraud; and on ſtrictly examining and comparing the ſame, found the Forgery to be the moſt extraordinary ever ſeen. On her being examined ſhe confeſſed ſhe never was at Stoke in her Life: That ſhe loſt her Eye by the Small-pox; and ſaid that the Petition was given her by a Perſon whom ſhe did not know at Reading, but would not diſcover who the Perſon was that wrote it. On her being re-examined before the Juſtices on Tueſday, ſhe was committed to Bridewell; tho' it is very much feared ſhe cannot receive a Puniſhment adequate to her Deſerts. She alſo told the Mayor, at firſt, that ſhe had collected upwards of 100l. at Oxford and Places near adjoining.

LONDON,

July 4. Yeſterday a great Number of People came down to Weſtminſter Hall, in order to hear the Trial that was to come on at the King's Bench, between a common Soldier and an Officer; but as the Affair was made up the Night before, they were diſappointed. The Affair, we hear, was this: The Soldier it ſeems had made ſome Spatterdaſhes for the Officer, which he had not paid him for: He one Day took an Opportunity to aſk him for the Money, perhaps with too little Delicacy, upon which the Officer thought proper to cane him, and uſe him with Severity: The Soldier being a Man of Spirit, could not ſubmit tamely to this Uſage, but reſtrain'd him by holding his Hands. This was conſtrued Mutiny; he was tried by a Court-Martial, and ſentenced to receive 500 Laſhes; 250 of which were actually inflicted upon him; but he having ſome Friends, a Proſecution was commenc'd.---Bleſſed indeed is the Conſtitution of that Country, where the Civil Power can check the Military.

July 7. We learn from Holland, that the Herring Fiſhery attracts, in an extraordinary Degree, the Attention of the Publick; which has already procured ſome Favours from the Government, and is like to procure more. But we have no Reaſon at all to be alarmed at this; ſince, if our Neighbours find themſelves obliged to look about them, we muſt likewiſe look to our own Concerns; and no Queſtion, if we do, that generous and national Undertaking, lately ſet on Foot in Great-Britain, will make its Way; and as in other Branches of Commerce, ſo in this, we may, in Time, make ſuch Improvements as ſhall give us the Preference to all our Rivals, and richly repay whatever the Publick may beſtow, in Order to the Maintenance of it in its Infancy.----

July 9. It is impoſſible for a Perſon, who has the Welfare of this Country at Heart, not to rejoice when he reads of the many Thouſand Foreigners that are ſent annually to our Plantations; where, by the moderate Exerciſe of their Induſtry, they gain immediately a comfortable Subſiſtance, and become in proceſs of Time, both rich and happy. But this Satisfaction receives no ſmall Alloy from the Sight of miſerable Multitudes here, who, if there ever were Objects of Compaſſion, are unqueſtionably ſuch, and, in that Light, ought to merit our moſt ſerious Conſideration. Our Work-houſes overflow, our Bridewells are too few, our Newgates are crowded, 'till the very Scent of our Malefactors becomes peſtilential. Why ſhould we not think of ſending the better Sort of diſtreſſed Poor to Georgia and Nova Scotia? Not chain'd and fetter'd, like Negroes; but, in Conſequence of their own free Choice, at the Publick Charge. If any tolerable Terms, with ſuitable Encouragement, were propoſed, Thouſands would accept them. A few uſeleſs Places ſuppreſſed, would furniſh the Expence; or, if thoſe be ſacred, a ſmall Duty on Tickets to Maſquerades, Operas, Play-houſes, Wells, Gardens, &c. would do as well; not only in ſupplying an adequate Fund for this Publick Service, but by making theſe Places change their Nature, and do ſome Good.

July 11. We hear that, amongſt other Propoſitions for the Publick Service, that will be made in the next Seſſions of Parliament, ſome Endeavours will be uſed to obtain a ſtanding Commiſſion for enquiring into the Management of Charities, to be executed by ſuch publick ſpirited Perſons as are willing to ſerve their Country in this Reſpect, without Fee or Reward; in order to prevent the prudent and pious Purpoſes of ſuch as bequeath'd Eſtates to maintain the Indigent and Infirm from being defeated, through the narrow and private Views of ſelf-intereſted Men; who have artfully ſcrew'd themſelves into the Direction of ſuch Foundations, and have converted elemoſinary Truſts into lucrative Employments.

According to ſome freſh Accounts from Georgia, we learn, they cultivate Indigo there in great Perfection; and that they have good Grounds to believe that they may alſo ſucceed in their Endeavours to procure Cochineal; the ſame Kind of Flies being obſerved to ſwarm there, about a particular Kind of Oak; from whence that valuable Dye is obtain'd. If theſe Improvements, together with the raiſing of Silk, which is certainly practicable, can be brought to bear, we ſhall ſoon ſee this deſpiſed Colony [indeed which of our Colonies in its Infancy was not deſpiſed?] become once more the Favourite of her Mother Country, and its Inhabitants contribute to her Support.

If we may yield any Credit to private Letters from Leghorn, the World will very ſpedily ſee an extraordinary Change in the State of Mercantile Affairs in Italy, in Conſequence of ſeveral Treaties of Commerce already concluded, and others that are upon the Carpet; by which all the Powers, who have any Dominions in their own Right, or have Princes of the Blood ſettled in that Country, will be united, and Meaſures effectually taken for ſcowering the Mediterranean, and reviving ſome of thoſe Maritime States, which, a few Centuries ago made ſo great a Figure, and owe their preſent dejected Condition to their preferring Uſury, Banks, and Paper Circulation, to the genuine Sources of Wealth, and Naval Power; Domeſtick Induſtry, and Foreign Commerce.

July 15. By Letters from Vienna we find, that all perſons of the niceſt Honour are in the Dumps, which is occaſioned by an Edict iſſued by the Empreſs, whereby Death is made the Penalty of fighting a Duel; ſo that the Delinquents have no Chance for their Lives; for they muſt either both die on the Spot, or one or both of them be hanged; and if they ſhould have the good Luck to eſcape Juſtice, they are to be executed in Effigy: In this Edict there is no Diſtinction made between Manſlaughter and Wilful Murder, it being conceived that thoſe who go to fight the next Day after an Affront given, mean to commit Murder, as they muſt have had Leiſure ſufficient to reflect.

When religious Diſcord runs high in a State, it is a Sign that the Prince himſelf is ſomewhat intoxicated, and leans too much to one Party; otherwiſe he would have Diſcernment and Influence enough to reconcile, or at leaſt ſilence, both Parties. Lewis XIV. in that Stage of Life, when the Jargon of deſigning Prieſts makes the deepeſt Impreſſions, ſolicited a Bull at Rome to prevent a Schiſm in his Kingdom, and had like to have occaſioned one by it. That Bull was the Conſtitution Unigenitus, againſt which the whole Kingdom tried out; nor could all his Authority, nor the Veneration in which he was held by his People, make it go down without many Restrictions and Reservations, and some would not accept it in any Form. He died two Years after, leaving the Work unfinished, and his Confessor, Father De Tellier, a Jesuit, who was the Author of all Confusion, was sent into Exile.

The Duke of Orleans, Regent of France, whose Religion, if any, was pure Deism, and his trusty Minister, Cardinal Dubois, a Man of infamous Manners and the lowest Principles, atchieved what the late King miscarried in: They laughed at the fierce Disputes about sufficient Grace and victorious Grace, and by putting both Parties a little out of Countenance, together with a seasonable Interposition of Authority, the famous Bull was accepted with the usual Clauses in Favour of the Liberties of the Gallican Church, and the Laws of the Kingdom, and all Controversies ceased. How they came to be lately revived with so much Fury, can hardly be otherwise accounted for, than that the Prince wants Impartiality and Resolution; and so, by imprudently favouring one Party too much, makes that become a very serious Affair, which at Bottom is really trifling, and not worth disputing about.

BOSTON, October 9.

On the 30th of September past, between 11 and 12 a Clock at Night, it being very dark and stormy, a coasting Vessel,----Macky, Master, coming from the Eastward, was cast away on the Rocks near Cape Ann, and stove to Pieces, by which Accident three Persons were drowned.

At the Court of Assize, &c. at Worcester, the 2d Tuesday of September last, one Jonathan Fairbanks, of Douglass, was convicted of the Crime of Incest, and adjudged to suffer the Penalty of the Law therefor, viz. To be set upon the Gallows with a Rope about his Neck for the Space of an Hour; and in the Way from thence to the Goal, to be whipt 20 Stripes, and for ever after wear a Capital I, of two Inches long, and proportionable in Bigness, cut out in Cloth of a contrary Colour to his Clothes, and sewed upon his upper Garment, either upon the outside of his Arm, or on his Back. And the Week following at the Court of Assize, &c. at Springfield, Daniel Baily, and Mary Rainer, of a Place adjoining to Sheffield, in that County, were convicted of Adultery, and were sentenced to suffer the Penalty of the Law therefor, viz. To sit upon the Gallows with a Rope about their Necks for the Space of an Hour, to be whipt 40 Stripes each, and to wear a Capital A, two Inches long, on their upper Garments, as above.

One Ezekiel Wells was convicted of uttering counterfeit Dollars, and sentenced to stand in the Pillory an Hour, and suffer three Months Imprisonment.

NEW-YORK, October 16.

Capt. Machet who arrived here last Week, from Halifax, had his Fore-Mast sprung in the hard Gale of Wind on Sunday the first Instant; and on the Thursday following, in Lat. 39. he spoke with Capt. PHILADELPHIA, October 19.

As frequent Mention is made in the News Papers from Europe, of the Success of the Philadelphia Experiment for drawing the Electric Fire from Clouds by Means of pointed Rods of Iron erected on high Buildings, &c. it may be agreeable to the Curious to be inform'd, that the same Experiment has succeeded in Philadelphia, tho' made in a different and more easy Manner, which any one may try, as follows.

Make a small Cross of two light Strips of Cedar, the Arms so long as to reach to the four Corners of a large thin Silk Handkerchief when extended; tie the Corners of the Handkerchief to the Extremities of the Cross, so you have the Body of a Kite; which being properly accommodated with a Tail, Loop and String, will rise in the Air, like those made of Paper; but this being of Silk is fitter to bear the Wet and Wind of a Thunder Gust without tearing. To the Top of the upright Stick of the Cross is to be fixed a very sharp pointed Wire, rising a Foot or more above the Wood. To the End of the Twine, next the Hand, is to be tied a silk Ribbon, and where the Twine and the silk join, a Key may be fastened. This Kite is to be raised when a Thunder Gust appears to be coming on, and the Person who holds the String must stand within a Door, or Window, or under some Cover, so that the Silk Ribbon may not be wet; and Care must be taken that the Twine does not touch the Frame of the Door or Window. As soon as any of the Thunder Clouds come over the Kite, the pointed Wire will draw the Electric Fire from them, and the Kite, with all the Twine, will be electrified, and the loose Filaments of the Twine will stand out every Way, and be attracted by an approaching Finger. And when the Rain has wet the Kite and Twine, so that it can conduct the Electric Fire freely, you will find it stream out plentifully from the Key on the Approach of your Knuckle. At this Key the Phial may be charg'd; and from Electric Fire thus obtain'd, Spirits may be kindled, and all the other Electric Experiments be perform'd, which are usually done by the Help of a rubbed Glass Globe or Tube; and thereby the Sameness of the Electric Matter with that of Lightning compleatly demonstrated."
